CHICAGO, July 10.—The committee of forty-eight, assisted by fraternal delegate representatives, a half liberal and radical organization, launched the third party movement here today in its first national convention.

Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, presidential nomination choice, in a mail referendum taken by the party to determine the most popular candidate, appeared to have no opposition as the delegates assembled. Nearly every one of the five or six hundred delegates wore a LaFollette badge.

Today's session was given over largely to keynoting and organization work. Harry McCurdy of New York made the keynote speech, declaring the time was ripe for a new deal politically.

The delegates were slow in assembling, while the leaders conferred in committee rooms, members of several groups equipped with soap-box platforms and temporary tables, set up shop in the corridors to expound their platforms. In the convention hall the band played while the workmen completed their last minute preparations by draping an American flag from the speaker's platform.

"He walked in with the officers and seated himself in the electric chair as coolly as if he were sitting down to dinner. He remained perfectly self possessed, while the officers were strapping him in the chair and when they placed the cap over his face."

"Chaplin Rogers of the penitentiary, who formerly preached at Stonewall, offered a prayer for Betterson. When he had finished praying Betterson said 'Thank you' in a firm tone of voice. Then the electricity was switched on and it soon was over with. I never want to see another electrocution."

WAR COST IS ASTOUNDING

ENGLISH FINANCIER STARTLES
BANKERS INSTITUTE WITH FIGURES SHOWING WAR'S
ENORMOUS COST.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 10.—The actual cost of the war to European belligerents was in excess of 20,000,000,000 pounds, represented by property destroyed, losses in investments abroad, depreciation of properties, and by pensions, Edgar Crammond, English financier, told the Bankers Institute at a recent meeting here.

He fixed the following as the real losses of the European Belligerents:

Germany, 8,700,000,000 pounds; France, 6,250,000,000; The United Kingdom, 5,200,000,000; Italy, 2,100,000,000 pounds; Belgium, 550,000,000 pounds.

To only two belligerent countries—the United States and Japan—did the war bring prosperity. Mr. Crammond said, but Spain, Holland, Switzerland, Greece, and Scandinavia, also had grown wealthier. He believed the "liquid capital of the world, now distributed in centers which are unaccustomed to the exercise of their new powers," would eventually again find its chief outlet through London.

"The war has produced an extraordinary change in the economic relations of the United States with Europe," he said. "Whereas, in 1914 America owed Europe $8,000,000,000 at present Europe owes America $8,000,000,000."

Assuming that the post-war purchasing power of the dollar was 70 per cent of its pre-war value, Mr. Crammond said during the past five years there had been an actual increase in the national wealth of the United States of approximately 30 per cent, and he estimated this wealth now in the neighborhood of $280,000,000,000 to $320,000,000,000.

The national wealth of Japan, he estimated, had been doubled by the war.

On the basis of a post-war mark valued at 50 per cent of its pre-war value he estimated Germany has lost, apart from the indemnity, 26 per cent of her national wealth, the whole of her mercantile marine, all her colonial possessions, and practically the whole of her investments abroad. The figures suggested at the Hythe conference 6,250,000,000, were fixed as the German war indemnity he declared the total losses of the German people arising out of the war would be equivalent to about 15,000,000,000 pounds or one half her national wealth.

"So far as the world as a whole is concerned the principle loss is in the fact that Europe is not yet a 'strong concern'," he continued, "but the underlying economic forces which made her the great center of the world's commercial activities are still at work and will rapidly transform the economic situation in Europe."

He said the dominant characteristic of international trade in the next 10 years will be a tremendous world demand for capital, and the internal financial policies of the nations should be framed with due regard to this condition.

The national wealth of Japan, he estimated, had been doubled by the war.

On the basis of a post-war mark valued at 50 per cent of its pre-war value he estimated Germany has lost, apart from the indemnity, 26 per cent of her national wealth, the whole of her mercantile marine, all her colonial possessions, and practically the whole of her investments abroad. The figures suggested at the Hythe conference 6,250,000,000, were fixed as the German war indemnity he declared the total losses of the German people arising out of the war would be equivalent to about 15,000,000,000 pounds or one half her national wealth.

"So far as the world as a whole is concerned the principle loss is in the fact that Europe is not yet a 'strong concern'," he continued, "but the underlying economic forces which made her the great center of the world's commercial activities are still at work and will rapidly transform the economic situation in Europe."

He said the dominant characteristic of international trade in the next 10 years will be a tremendous world demand for capital, and the internal financial policies of the nations should be framed with due regard to this condition.

THE CAR SHORTAGE CRIPPLES STEEL PLANTS

By the Associated Press.

"FRONT CELL" CAMPAIGN BY THE SOCIALISTS

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 10.—A "front cell" campaign is planned by the socialist party for Eugene V. Debs, presidential nominee, according to Wm. Feigenbaum, director of publicity for the national campaign. Mr. Feigenbaum said today the party intends to send some prominent socialists to Debs's prison at Atlanta every month. What Debs has to say will then be distributed by the campaign committee.

"BLESSED IS THE MAN THAT WALKETH NOT IN THE COUNSEL OF THE UNGODLY, NOR STANDETH IN THE WAY OF SINNERS, NOR SITTETH IN THE SEAT OF THE SCORNFUL"—If you are at church tomorrow morning you can be sure of the blessing promised in the first Psalm. The churches want you.

Advertising

Advertising is a form of propaganda which, when properly applied, greatly reduces sales resistance and paves the way for the salesman.

In any sales transaction the buyer must necessarily pass through four distinct mental stages, viz: (1) Attention; (2) Interest; (3) Desire that results in; (4) Action or the Purchase. Advertising can be employed efficiently to secure the buyer's attention and to arouse his interest. It is then the salesman's task to increase the buyer's interest to that point of desire which, with the proper salesmanship, leads to the purchase or final closing of the sale. Advertising does not detract from the salesman; it rather enables him to concentrate his effort upon the most vital part of the sale, thereby making him doubly efficient.

Since advertising is used almost universally in practically the field for direct sales effort, the passenger car or truck agent must readily see the importance of giving careful study to such advertising methods as will best link up with local conditions in his territory. We shall therefore attempt to present a few suggestions regarding advertising methods which are available for the agent's consideration.

First of all, the kind and extent of the advertising program upon which any agent enters will depend largely upon the co-operative advertising of the car or truck manufacturer. Some of the larger manufacturers make it their business to map out local advertising campaigns for the various agents. The agent should, by all means, avail himself of suggestions and advertising secured in this way, as they generally come from a trained and highly competent source.

Advertising can be carried on in such a variety of ways that it is impossible to cover all of them in our limited space, but the more important methods are as follows:

- (a) Local newspapers.
- (b) Direct by mail.
- (c) Show window display.
- (d) Outdoor advertising.
- (e) Special demonstrations.

Newspaper Advertising.

To get the best results from local newspaper advertising, large space in one or two of the more prominent papers of the community is to be preferred to more frequent and smaller copy in a larger number of papers.

In quite a few towns and cities there are certain days of the week or certain issues that are the object of more local interest than others. If possible, the agent should choose such issues for the appearance of the copy.

Newspaper advertising should, by all means, be done consistently. A large part of the benefit of this particular type of advertising is lost unless the copy appears at regular intervals. Haphazard or "hit-and-miss" advertising is money thrown away.

Since the human mind is capable of absorbing only one impression at a time, the best advertising copy which the agent can use is the one which covers one selling feature at a time, driving it home in the briefest possible way.

Brevity is an advantage. If you catch the eye and the thought of the newspaper reader you must catch it quickly. The mental attitude of a man reading a newspaper is quite different from the mental attitude of a man reading a magazine, for instance. His mind is generally engrossed in business or the affairs of the day. The agent cannot hope to interest him in lengthy arguments that require much mental study. If he gets an impression from an advertisement he must get it quickly and easily.

The advantage of advertising one feature at a time will be lost unless the ads are run in series—one after the other—at regular intervals. The last of the series should be a summation of the features, or where there are a large number, it sometimes becomes necessary to run in a summation after the appearance of three or four ads covering single selling features. This summary hits the bull's-eye by answering several questions that are likely to occur to the possible buyer of an automobile.—Automobile Digest.

Health Campaign Is Getting Results From County People

Quite an extensive clean up program is being carried on over the county under the direction of Dr. J. A. Deen, health officer. It has proved beyond doubt over and over that cleanliness is next to Godliness and that it is one of the best disease preventatives. Accumulations of filth makes ready harbors for disease germs of all descriptions. Hence the importance of everybody aiding in every way possible to clean up the county.

A letter from one point in the county is as follows:

Ref. Okla., July 7, 1920.

Dr. Deen, Health Officer,

Dear Sir:—We had a meeting last night and are cutting weeds today. We have sent a wagon to Hickory after a load of lime and are going to distribute the lime and keep the work going until we get cleaned up. We have also sent a man to see about the out buildings you spoke of when you were here. He is going to the man that owns the house and also to the man that is living there.

Yours very truly,

With the Women of Today

Women in many of the different churches are seeking for the rights and privileges which the men have always enjoyed and some of the denominations have admitted them into the pulpit and other offices of the church. Here are three women who have been preachers for thirteen years. They are Rev. Helen Close, Rev. Mona L. Brook and Rev. Ida Close.

All three were ordained in 1907 in the Colorado College of Divine Science, and they have officiated in the pulpit of the Congregational church since then, where they preach constructive thought in science, philosophy and religion. At present they are at the head of the California college of Divine Science in Oakland, Cal. Rev. Mona L. Brook, who was formerly president of the Colorado College of Divine Science, is now serving as temporary pastor of the Divine Science church of New York City. All three women are firm believers in woman suffrage.

London claims the youngest musical composer and conductress in the world in the person of Miss Estelle Dudley, a fourteen-year-old girl who astonished the British recently by conducting a well-known orchestra of forty-six musicians, who played a wonderful composition of her own.

Girl Scouts Extend Work The girl scout program for training and recreational camps will be run on a larger scale in the future than in the past, according to the announcement from the national headquarters of the organization in New York.

Increased facilities and an enlarged personnel of instructors has been obtained, both at Long Pond, the large permanent summer camp for the girl scouts near Plymouth, Mass., and at Twin Lakes, Central Valley, N. Y., where troops from New York City send their summer vacations.

The training school at Long Pond is under the leadership of Mrs. James J. Storrow of Boston, while Miss Emily McClure of national headquarters is directing the Twin Lakes school. Among the courses offered at the camps are natural history and botany.

Celebrated Case Is On Trial Today At Holdenville

Kit Guest, Jack Bailey, Walter Coyne and Cleud Chandler went to Holdenville today to appear before the United States commissioner where Mr. Guest will have a preliminary hearing on the charge of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor. He was apprehended by local and special enforcement officers near Ada one night some weeks ago and at that time had in his possession several gallons of moonshine whiskey. He claims to have taken the liquor from a bootlegger and was on his way back to Ada with the booze when stopped by the other officers. The case has created a good deal of interest in Ada.

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists. RC-124

THE OTHER FELLOW'S BUSINESS

We doubt if there has ever been a time in the history of civilization when all the affairs of every individual were so carefully looked after by someone else as they are today. Go wherever you will and remain as long as you please, and everything you do or think or say receives immediate attention from one to a dozen of self selected friends and benefactors of the public. On this day and date we have met seven different representatives of various paternal organizations all eager to confer some vital benefit on us willy nilly. There may have been others in Ada, but we met only seven. There is no excuse for going wrong or making a mistake any more. You have constantly at your elbow some specialist from abroad to tell you exactly how and when to do it. From the hang of your trousers to the condition of your epiglottis you can obtain expert advice by simply opening your ears. Our streets are fairly crowded by the good Samaritans telling us how to avoid tuberculosis by sleeping in the open air and how to dodge rheumatism by sleeping in a warm bed. They will caution you against eating meat which produces obesity and how to cut a steak to make it fit one's purse. You can choose between the man who teaches you how to own your own auto and the man who teaches you not to own anything on wheels. A woman from St. Louis is sent here to denounce race suicide and is followed by a Bostonian who teaches the disgusting animality of having any children at all. A high priced master from the Great Lakes drops in to discourse on the best method of trimming toe nails and a high voiced mistress from the Wabash reveals all the mysteries of how to make hens lay.

Of course we pay for these benefactors and of course both state and nation are working overtime providing more benefactors. Of course it is costing millions of money to keep this army on the road and of course old man people is paying the bills. But what in the world would we ever do if the government did not furnish an army of carpet baggers to check us up on every thought, word and deed?

A farmer from Boggy tells the Evening News that since the rains have come his corn is good for forty gallons an acre.

The Tulsa World doesn't seem to like the Democratic platform any better than the Evening News likes the Republican platform.

Even if the German senator from Wisconsin should be elected president by the composite third party, he couldn't take his seat. The constitution requires the president to be a citizen of the United States.

A writer in the Literary Digest says that Warren G. Harding was such a good boy that he never got a spanking in his life. That may be true, but he will get one next November that will make up for all he has ever missed.

Speaking of the latest pardon epidemic at the state capitol the Tulsa World declares that Oklahoma should turn out the present state administration and elect a Republican administration. But how much better off would Oklahoma be under the administration of Jake Hamon.

If we ever get to act as temporary governor of Oklahoma, we are going to pardon some poor cuss who hasn't a penny. No acting governor has ever yet pardoned a man unless he was a defaulting banker or millionaire bootlegger. Such favoritism is altogether undemocratic.

Carl Monk boasted at the Muskogee convention that he was the first man in America to think of Senator Owen as a presidential possibility. And the happenings at Frisco would indicate that Carl was about the only one that ever thought of Owen in that connection.

A choice joke for the comic supplements is now being sent out by the Gore headquarters at the Skirvin Hotel. In labored style the campaign managers of the junior senator are claiming that the San Francisco convention approved Gore's stand on the league of nations. Such an assertion will never develop that bitterness that so frequently mars party politics, for the warmest fire-eater in Oklahoma as well as the densest citizen of this commonwealth can easily detect the ridiculousness of the senatorial claim. The convention shows its opinion of the "poison squad" in the senate in the case of Reed of Missouri, with whom our junior senator voted long and consistently. The convention would have done the same thing for Gore if he had been in Reed's place. The endorsement of President Wilson's position on the league covenant was as strong as the English language could make it. The only national convention that has thus far approved Gores' position was the Republican convention at Chicago.

State Press Comment

Miami News: There will be no moving pictures of Harding's campaign. He doesn't intend to move.

Miami News: History speaks of a 100 of Worms. Doubtless there were food profiteers in those days.

Bartlesville Examiner: In spite of deliberating percentages, booze still has considerable fighting spirit.

Muskogee Phoenix: In condemning the inaction of the present congress, the democratic platform strikes something like a national keynote.

Healdton Herald: You can't prove that you have massive brains simply by brushing your hair straight back from your forehead.

Tishomingo Capital - Democrat: Joshua commanded the sun to stand still, but it takes Johnston county to make the moonshine.

Oklahoma: Senator Reed of Missouri has made another attack on President Wilson and the democratic party. Reed seems to suffer from chronic discontent.

Shawnee News: There is this to be said about Mayor Pete Duffy, who has just withdrawn from the race for congress in the fifth district: He knew when to quit.

Bartlesville Examiner: Platform planks used to be made of wood. Most of them are still, as you can tell at a glance; but for some of them, they're using bone this year.

Muskogee Phoenix: Mexico does not need abuse in the painful rebuilding of its social and political structure, but sympathy and active assistance.

Oklahoma City Times: San Francisco has a delightful summer climate, and should recommend itself to any party that is disposed to make its national convention a Marathon performance.

McAlester News-Capital: Whenever a political leader says anything the other politicians wonder what he really means. And whenever he doesn't say anything, they wonder still more.

Shawnee News: Now that Marse Henry Watterson has said that he likes the democratic ticket, the way is perfectly clear for Kentucky to swing back into the democratic column.

Oklahoma: President Wilson promptly sent a message of congratulations and good wishes to Governor Cox when he learned of the latter's nomination by the democratic national convention. It was a case of the present president congratulating the next president.

Tishomingo Capital-Democrat: The world is on a riding boom and going some. The price of the gasoline being daily wasted on unnecessary and senseless joy-rides in this country would more than clothe, feed and educate every poverty stricken child in America. And yet we boast of our intelligence and philanthropy.

Oklahoma City Times: Reparation claims of the allies are being pressed this week at the conference of prime ministers at Spa, Germany, of course, is struggling for a reduction of the demands ranging from twenty to thirty billion dollars. Justice would exact an even greater sum. There were Hun outrages too great to be reckoned in money. But there is a limit to what Germany can or will pay. This conference will be more of a preliminary to determine these possibilities than an actual settlement.

Ardmoreite: When the Healdton ball team won a game a few days ago, Editor Jack Hyde of that city became greatly enthused. Later when the national democracy eliminated Jim Reed from its councils, at San Francisco, Jack threw his hat on the floor and walked all over it. After August 3rd, when Oklahoma primary election returns show a democratic junior senator from this state, the Herald thought-maker and truth expounder will do a scalp dance in which many will join.

Plowing with motors has passed the experimental stage now, and before long we may reasonably expect that a large percentage of the farmers of this section of the country will be using them. A fast age it is we are living in, and speed and thoroughness in all lines must be taken advantage of.

TO SPEND $100,000 TO KEEP FARMERS ON THE FARMS

By the Associated Press

DALLAS, Texas, July 7.—Business men of Texas are being asked by the Texas industrial congress to invest a total of $100,000 in a movement to keep farmers on the farms. They are requested to accept the farmer's "character and moral worth" as security.

"It is proposed," says the congress, "to help the tenant who seeks to buy a farm and who lacks a few hundred dollars necessary cash, or who needs farm implements and equipment that will make him more efficient in his farming operations; to help the farmer's wife who needs a cow as a means of reducing the family living expenses and of supplementing the income, the farmer boy in getting a start in hog raising or in establishing a livestock herd, and the farmer's daughter in starting a little poultry business, and in fact, any way that will serve to bring about a greater happiness and contentment with farm life and in improving rural living conditions."

The Texas industrial congress was founded by the late Henry Exall of Dallas, who spent the major part of his life working for the betterment of Texas farm and ranch conditions. The congress raised $10,000 in each of the five years previous to the war among business men. This money was distributed as prizes to farmers who produced the greatest average yield of staple Texas crops at the least cost. In the last year more than 30,000 persons competed for the prizes. The war caused their discontinuance.

When the congress resumed work at the conclusion of the war, it decided that a system of credits based upon the requirements of agriculture, rather than those of commerce and manufacture, would give a more beneficial stimulus to farming interests than prizes.

The lack of collateral bars a large element of the farm population from participating in the benefits offered by the federal land loan banks, according to the congress. It stated, therefore, that it would create a fund of at least $100,000 from which loans on long times at low rates of interest would be made to those who could not obtain financial aid through ordinary channels. This fund the congress announced, will be considered as a monument to Henry Exall, and will be raised by subscription.

BUFFALOES ARE ON THE INCREASE IN NATIONAL PARK

By the Associated Press

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo., July 7.—Convincing evidence that the wild buffalo of Yellowstone National park, the last surviving remnants of the great herds which once roamed the western plains, are on the increase, instead of dying out as was feared, has been obtained in the discovery of a new group in the southeast portion of the park. About 15 animals were observed, evidently a part of the old herd, which it is thought grew so large that some of its members were forced to break away and seek new pasturage.

Definite information has been obtained by park authorities that there are now more than 100 of the wild buffalo of the park. Formerly there were only about half that number.

When discovered, the new herd was within five miles of one of the largest hotels in the park and a snapshot was obtained of one of the animals, a fine bull, probably the first photograph ever taken of a wild buffalo.

Ordinarily the wild buffalo are never seen by tourists and only rarely by park authorities, even by the rangers who patrol the most remote sections. The appearance of the new herd close to the main lines of travel was before the season opened and the animals apparently had been lured down from the mountain fastnesses by the abundance of spring grass on the lower levels. They disappeared into untraveled country as soon as automobiles became frequent along the highways.

Forty-eight calves have been added this year to the tame buffalo herd of the park, which now has a population of 500. Part of the tame herd has been placed in corral at Mammoth Hot Springs for the benefit of visitors.

Flag Issues Denial.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Howard Figg, special assistant to the attorney general, in charge of the high cost of living campaign, issued a statement today denying charges of Miss Olivia Bruggeman before the senate investigating committee at St. Louis yesterday that the high cost of living campaign fund had been used to further Attorney General Palmer's campaign for the democratic nomination for the presidency.

UNUSUAL BLOUSE OF TRICOLETTE

By Eloise
The tricolette blouse has found a very definite place in the summer wardrobe of the well-dressed woman. It is a practical, cool and usually a very pretty affair. It comes in every conceivable color, both brilliant and pale. It is worn with fancy silk skirts, navy or dark suit skirts, wash skirts and the popular plaids. No matter it is such a universally popular style one welcomes any deviation from the ordinary and accepted, but here is a tricolette overblouse which is indeed a surprise. It is made of a very pretty piece of tricolette, a white silk with navy blue bars forming a pretty plaid. It is cut in the prevailing kimono style with a round neck and short sleeves. A tiny ripple peplum and a sash of the white are smart features and the half sleeves of navy georgette, are a most novel touch. This blouse makes a pretty costume when worn with either a suit skirt, a dark silk or a white silk one.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Daudridge returned last night from a pleasure trip to Sulphur.

Rhubarb Betty.—Grease a baking dish and then dust with fine bread crumbs. Now place in a mixing bowl. Two cups of unsweetened stewed rhubarb, one and one-half cups of fine bread crumbs, one and one-quarter cups of brown sugar, one-half teaspoon of nutmeg. Two table-spoons of melted butter, one table-spoon of baking powder. Beat to mix thoroughly and then turn into the prepared dish and bake in a moderate oven for 30 minutes.

Butterscotch Sauce.—Place in a saucepan one and one-half cups of brown sugar, three-quarters cup of milk. Bring to a boil and then cook slowly until it forms a soft ball in cold water. Now add three table-spoons of flour, three-quarters cup of water. Dissolve the flour before adding to the mixture. Stir to blend thoroughly and then bring to a boil and cook slowly for three minutes. Now add two table-spoons of butter, one-half table-spoon of vanilla extract. Beat to blend and then serve.

Cornstarch Pudding.—Place one pint of milk in sauce pan and add one-half cup cornstarch. Stir to dissolve, bring to boil, cook slowly for ten minutes. Now add one-half cup sugar, one well-beaten egg and one teaspoon vanilla. Beat to mix; rinse custard cups with cold water and pour in the custard. Set aside to mold.

Trifle Pudding.—Put cake slices and jam in layers in glass dish. Bits of cake or dry cakes may be used. Two table-spoons lemon juice and two table-spoons water, cooked with one table-spoon sugar and poured over is the secret of the flavor obtained.

One egg beaten and one cup of milk cooked together until a thin custard is made, but do not boil, pour over the cake lemon juice in dish and set aside to cool. Serve cold and decorate with cherries or strawberries from the jam pot. Put about one table-spoon of sugar in the custard to avoid a flat taste.

Sandwiches
Egg Sandwiches.—Slice hard boiled eggs or chop fine, season with a peanut butter salad dressing, spread on lettuce leaves and lay between slices of buttered bread.

Club Sandwich.—Butter hot toast well; arrange half the slices on a large platter; put a lettuce leaf on each slice and brush lightly with a French dressing covered with mustard, then cover with pieces of two or three kinds of meat, cold breast of chicken, sliced, and a piece of freshly fried bacon, or cold sliced tongue and fresh rriet ham. Add a slice of cucumber or green tomato pickle; cover with the remaining slices of toast and garnish with lettuce and olives.

Keep as warm as possible. Fine for luncheons.

PARIS, July 10.—Polish forces are withdrawing from Brest-Litovsk, Vilna and Pinsk, as a result of the great Russian Bolshevik offensive, according to a telegram received by the newspaper L'Informateur this morning. Evacuation of Brest-Litovsk, Vilna and Pinsk would seem to indicate a general withdrawal of the Polish line to the frontier of that new republic. Latest advices from Warsaw have shown the Poles to be struggling against the Russian, soviet armies.

JAPAN TO SPEND VAST SUMS FOR NEW WARSHIPS

TOKIO, July 10.—The Japanese government has decided to ask for an appropriation of approximately $22,199,499 to be expended in the construction of new war ships and other naval requirements for the current fiscal year as part of the national defense. The plan is based on the completion of the eight battleship and eight cruiser unit.

The whole naval repletion program is to be completed by the end of 1927 the total expenditure being fixed at over $45,000,000, spread over ten consecutive years. Of that sum over $375,000,000 is intended for the construction of four battleships, four battle cruisers, 12 cruisers, 37 destroyers and a number of other war craft.

The original sum of this year's outlay was fixed at $33,199,499 in the navy budget estimate but owing to insufficient financial source, that amount has been cut down by about $11,000,000.

The outlay for the army involved in the national defense completion plan has been also curtailed to the extent of about $5,000,000 the expenditure for the present fiscal year being fixed at approximately $11,800,000. The expenditure required for the execution of the national defense completion plan for the army is fixed at about $212,500,000 which is spread over 10 consecutive years commencing the present year.

The appropriations both for the army and navy to be introduced in the coming session of the Imperial Diet.

FOR CONGRESS Ex-Judge ROBERT WHEELER of Tecumseh

I am a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district, subject to the August 3, primary. I am for the time honored principles of personal rights and personal liberty that the Democratic party always stood for and championed until a part of it, under the excitement and tension of the great war, was carried away by men whose only purpose was to disrupt and divide the party.

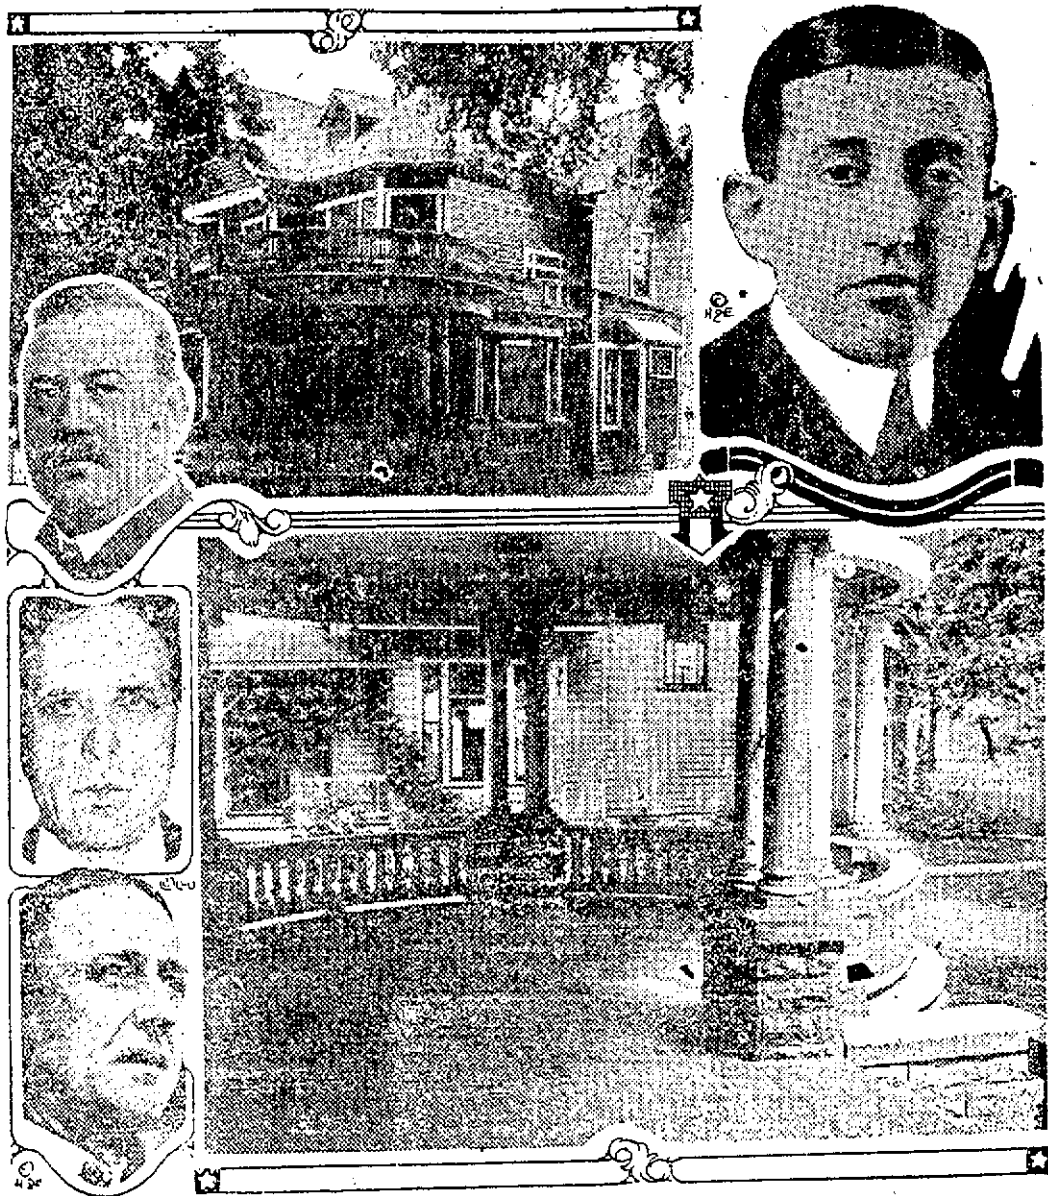

I have never used liquor as a beverage, but believe it to be a valuable medicine, and if I am elected to congress I will do all in my power to have Congress enact liberal laws that will permit citizens to procure liquor for medicinal purposes without unnecessary red tape or vexatious restrictions; leaving each to be sole judge of his needs and requirements for the preservation of the health of himself and family. The 18th amendment has eliminated the saloon, so that its return is no longer a possible factor or a question. But we ought not to return to the New England blue laws, or permit further encroachments on our remaining liberties. In this boasted free country it is no longer a question of liquor, but a question of personal rights and American manhood.

I am also in favor of liberal laws that will encourage the full development of the oil, mineral and manufacturing industries of the state, and enable the railroads to develop so as to be able to perform the services required of them; with fair wages and fair treatment for employees in every industry. But I am unalterably against profiteering, extravagance, graft, a large standing army, compulsory military training and political cowardice.

If the above meets with your approval, I will highly value and appreciate your support and influence.

Yours very truly,
Political adv ROBERT WHEELER.

SHELL SHOCKED WAR VETERANS NOW FARMING

By the Associated Press NEW YORK, July 9.—A number of modest little farms operated by veterans of the world war who have recovered from shell shock, gas or wounds, now dot the states of New Jersey, Connecticut and New York. The owners of these farms, most of them graduates of the New York State School of Agriculture at Farmingdale, L. I., have been "rehabilitated" and are now making good as food producers with the same enthusiasm that took them "over the top" in France.

The transformation of most of these former soldiers who selected farming from among the subjects offered by the federal board for vocational training in many cases has been a complete metamorphosis of railroad brakemen, plumbers, policemen, mechanics and laborers. One recent graduate of the school was a bartender before the war and today he owns a thoroughly up-to-date place near Toms River, N. J.

According to A. A. Johnson, director of the school, there were 76 federal board men enrolled in June and a number of these have since graduated. Director Johnson was lavish in his praise of what the soldier farmers were accomplishing, declaring that not only were they doing their full share in the economic program of their country, but "in a good many cases, considerably more than others less handicapped by wounds." He said they were about equally divided as farm tractor mechanics, general farmers, poultry raisers and hog breeders.

Archie A. Stone, former member of the Minnesota legislature, who is in charge of the work for the government, and has studied the results of the farm vocational training plan, said that it is producing results of a definite and permanent character. The students may have both theory and practice at Farmingdale 365 days in the year.

Michael Leddy, who lost an arm at Chateau-Thierry, is specializing in tractor work and with one hand and a steel hook, drives as straight a furrow, it is said, as any two-handed farm boy.

A year ago Charles Kupinski, another crippled soldier, had never even ridden in a motor car. Recently, according to Director Johnson, he repaired a cracked cylinder in a heavy farm tractor at a saving of nearly $200 to the school.

Other soldier graduates of Farmingdale who are operating farms are Harry J. Cruise at Holbrook, L. I., Edison Smith, New Canaan, Conn.; Elmer E. Stuart, Wallingburg, Pa.; Abner A. Sullivan, Rocktonoma, L. I., and a number of others within 50 miles of New York.

BLOOMER GIRLS MEET DEFEAT

GAME WAS PLAYED YESTERDAY
AFTERNOON AT FAIR PARK
—GOOD CROWD IN AT-TENDANCE.

They came. We saw. They went. Yesterday afternoon at the fair grounds park, the American legion team of this city played the Western Bloomer girls, the final score resulting in favor of the legion with a score of 8 to 2.

The girls played a splendid game and several good plays were made by members of that club. It was noted that the girls had plenty of "zip" and were well versed in the art of "getting back" at the local team.

Guy Young twirled the game for the local team and was somewhat excited at the beginning, but soon settled down and pitched a game a la Russell style.

Miss Mabel of the girls team showed rare ability on the mound and is credited with several strikeouts, one being Stigler, Ada's star pitcher. Stigler stated that the young lady glove artist must have had "something on it." Anyway, Stigler swung at the pill like the old rusty wooden gate and caused much amusement among the spectators.

Walter Wray, who was holding down the first sack for Ada, almost forgot himself and is noted to have almost caught one of the ladies—to keep her from falling. Wray is reputed to be somewhat of a ladies' man anyway, that is, on like occasions.

Jim Coleman officiated in the ceremony and it is said that he came near being "cleaned up" by one of the ladies. Coleman was trying to umpire the game on the square and one of the ladies thought he was trying to give the boys the best end of the argument. No damage done.

To sum up the game, it could be said that it was one of the best entertainments that has been staged in this city for some time and every one present was for the "wimmen" right or wrong, win or lose.

News Notes From the Normal

Slim Says
That he got so interested in the Bloomer Girl Ball game yesterday that he forgot all about the Big stunt that Seniors pulled in the gym building last evening. He missed the big feast and liked to made His "best girl" Get sore. His Conduct was something Awful, according to The accusations by Some "vamp" who saw Him at the game. He wishes that he Had been born rich Instead of good-looking. Slim.

All boys who are interested in basket ball are requested to meet in the auditorium this afternoon. J. Q. Vernon is the captain.

Today is Saturday and finds us all in school. Maybe on tomorrow we can all go to church and enjoy the services.

The Y. W. C. A. swimming party that was to have been given today has been postponed until July 13th. On that date they will make it a lucky one, even if it is the 13th.

It is announced that there are positions open in Hughes county for several teachers. Those desiring places in this county can see President M. L. Perkins.

The Y. W. C. A. girls postponed their trip to Jack Fork creek until next week. The rain of yesterday prevented this organization from having the picnic yesterday.

And lest we forget the regular assembly next Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, and the captain has requested that all be present. Good program and plenty of good lectures.

The seniors will make a trip to Byrd's Mill next week and have invited the Phi Betas to go along. The Phi Betas have accepted the invitation and will be there for a good time.

The "Old Man" sent a wireless this morning to his children here that he had again reached the North Pole and enjoyed his visit here very much. He is to make another trip in this country sometime next week.

The gym classes were playing the Dodge ball this morning. This is a new game recently introduced in the schools over the state and has proven very popular. It is noted that the boys and girls of these classes are taking much interest in basket ball.

The picture show last night was well attended and the program was splendid. "Silas Marner," an educational picture, was shown, and several special musical numbers were given by normal talent. The shows will be given each Friday evening at 7:30 and all are invited.

This morning the orchestra was "tuned up" and the students on the campus were entertained (they hear a lot of music every day) by this organization. The normal orchestra is one of the best in the state and much of its success is attributed to the director, Mr. Fred Schrieber.

Special Assembly.
President Perkins called a special assembly this morning for the purpose of making several announcements relative to the students who fail to attend the regular assembly. Instructions in other matters were given which will evidently cause a "full house" on next Wednesday morning.

Red Red Rosé Social.
Last evening the "Old Man" came down from the North Pole and brought his children enough refreshments for a social affair. The members of his family met promptly at 8 o'clock and had a business meeting, later repairing to the banquet hall where a feast of sandwiches, punch and watermelons were served. The watermelons were secured by a clause in the "Old Man's" will, stating that he will provide at any time, place or occasion.

During the course of the feast (talks were made by the following visiting brothers: Mr. Burks of Shawnee, Mr. Dodson of Oklahoma City and Dr. Dourland of Washington. All present expressed themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening and are confident that the "Old Man" is a great provider.

That Social.
We have been announcing and rehearsing for a social for some time and last evening our dreams and prospects came true.

Last evening the senior class entertained the Phi Betas with a lunch and watermelon party. A general good time was had by all present and numerous games were played which added much to the success of the affair. Special musical numbers were given by a few of the young ladies present and same were enjoyed very much.

On account of the bad weather the affair was held in the normal gym building and the watermelon feast took place on the outside. This morning the scenery around the gym building looked as if a young cyclone had visited this country. Anyway, everybody present had a good time and enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wimbush, Miss Stella Watson, Mr. Hugh Mathews and Miss Anna Weaver Jones acted as the chaperons.

Hospital Notes

Roger Harris was operated on last night and is reported critically ill this morning.

Miss Ocie Hawkins is doing well from her late appendicitis operation.

Mrs. George Goddard is recovering nicely from her operation.

Mrs. Dr. Sharp of Francis Dead. The wife of Dr. Sharp of Francis died yesterday at her home according to word received here. Deceased had been ill for some time. No further information was obtained.

Ada Trades Player.
Pitcher Sigler of the local ball club has been traded to the Western Bloomer girls for $140 cash and Centerfielder Mabel. It is not known when Sigler will join the club but it is expected that he will remain in this city for some time. Anyway, Sigler is a good player and an artist with the pill, and will make good with the club. Jim Coleman, manager of the local team, says that the 140 "bucks" that he received will help pay the local club out of the hole on tomorrow's game.

The two new players (and "wimmen") are anxious to get in this club. They like that young man who played first base for Ada yesterday. The fellow with those pretty eyes and white hair.

THE CAR SHORTAGE ORIFLES STEEL PLANTS

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 10.—Suspension of work in many steel plants, throwing thousands of work men out of employment, is threatened by a car shortage, the Interstate Commerce Commission was told today by J. S. Townsend, representing more than a score of steel factories in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

New Will Head Speakers
CHICAGO, July 10.—Republican National Committee Chairman Hays gave out the following outline of the speaking plans:
The speakers' bureau will be headed by Senator Harry S. New, as chairman. Senator New directed the Roosevelt campaign.

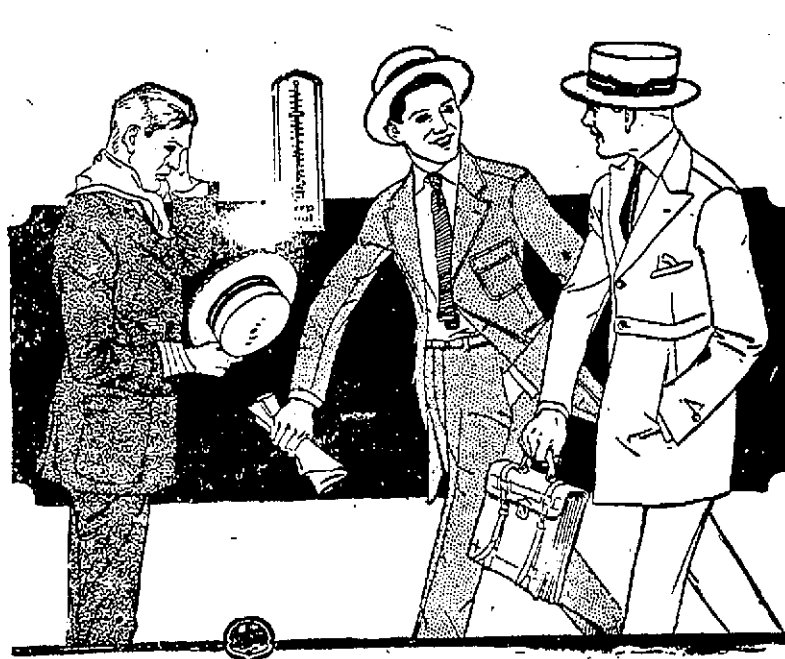

A novel camera is equipped with a small telescope of the same focal lens, so mounted that when the telescope is focused on an object the sharpest results are obtained on plate or film.

Summers Chapel.
We are having dry weather now, and rain is beginning to be needed. Reverend Moody of Stratford preached at the Chapel Sunday. The sermon seemed to be very interesting to all who heard it. Sunday school was good Sunday. Most everyone from this part went to the picnic at Byars or Sulphur Saturday. Quite a few from here were at Parish Chapel Sunday night, a revival having commenced there Saturday night. Mr. Wilburn Stone and wife went to Ada Saturday. A. J. and M. R. Wood are baling hay this week. Road Overseer Bond did some very good work on the mail route Monday. M. C. Turner sold his farm and crop to J. A. Pannell of Stratford and will move to property he bought in Stratford and Mr. Pannell will take possession of the place. The change will be made this week. Mrs. I. N. Baker of Roff is visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Wood, of this place. Messrs. Roger Wood, Earline Haskins and Misses Esther, Ruth and Georgia Coker were at the Byars lake Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Tucker of Parrish Chapel visited Wilburn Stone and wife Sunday. Everybody come to Sunday school next Sunday.—A READER.

NATIONAL LABOR PARTY TRIES NEW ORGANIZING PLAN

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, July 7.—Amalgamation of radical labor organizations, world war veterans and liberals behind a single presidential ticket and platform will be sought here at the time of the conventions this month of the National Labor party and of the committee of 48, it is reported by S. I. Rybins of the committee of 48.

The plan is for each organization to continue its identity but unite in a common presidential campaign for a radical candidate standing on a radical platform.

The organizations which effort is being made to enlist include the Labor Party of the United States, National Non-Partisan League, Single Tax Party, Committee of 48, Triple Alliance of the Northwest, People's League of Missouri, World War Veterans, and National Public Ownership League.

"The plan is to bring all of the radical organizations possible into a big organized liberal movement," said one of the promoters. "In program we'll have points of similarity."

"Such a union for this year's presidential campaign has been under consideration for a number of months. The Committee of 48 and national labor party have been among the chief factors in the proposition. The organizations have not gotten together as yet. The question will come before the national conventions here the second week in July of the Committee of 48, labor party and Single Tax Party."

The Committee of 48 is taking a mail referendum of the membership on several questions, including possible presidential candidates. Senator Robert LaFollette is leading in the poll. Others who have received votes are Frank P. Walsh, Gov. Lynn B. Frazier of North Dakota, and Senator Walsh of Massachusetts.
